Lee Shippey Writes On Land

I've just read "My Wilderness," by Justice William O. Douglas, not a new book but one two years old — and though it is mostly about our country's northwest corner I wish everyone in California could read it.

It makes one realize that wilderness is worth more to the great majority of us than the Mother Lode ever was.

It makes one think we may easily get overbuilt on highways, now hailed as such great achievements.

Of course, all speculators who have bought desert land for a dollar or two an acre and are selling it for $100 or so a lot hail every state-built highway which leads to it as a grand thing.

But the other day that excellent newscaster, Carroll Alcott, said that only 5 per cent of the desert lots sold in recent years have been built on, clearly indicating most buyers were carried away by glowing predictions that a new Palm Springs was in the making. Ninety-five per cent had bought in hope of selling at a sizable profit — and it has not yet materialized.

IT IS PERFECTLY true that there will always be more people but never more land. It is also true that a few developments which are well financed and well managed will grow in attractiveness and value.

But unless we start now to protect unspoiled desert, mountain and beach areas from "progress" — such as the horrible tramway up Mt. San Jacinto or imitation Disneyland or oceanariums, we are going to rob our grandchildren of much that made the West what it is, and which may be more valuable to them than any of the honkeytone "attractions."

Anyone who would trade the sweet, pure air of our primitive areas, strength of our mountains, peace of our deserts, fascinations of our wild life sanctuaries for one more ubiquitous Coney Island should have his head examined.

BUT I REMARKED that possibly we might get overbuilt on highways. That is not a prediction but certainly is a possibility.

When one realizes how the motor car has driven the horse off of our roads in the last 40 years it doesn't take much imagination to foresee a time when we would happily trade three costly highways for one landing field.

Then many a highway which was some contractor's road to riches may become only a road to nowhere or a ruin like the Parthenon.

ASIDE FROM THAT, we need many areas in which there are no roads, where nature can proceed in its own way, and teach us much that modernity cannot teach.

For every road into the wilderness brings careless smokers who start forest fires and many other foolish people.

Left to itself, nature preserves balances which cannot survive progress for revenue only.

Already Angeles National Forest, with breathing space for tens of thousands, is one of Sierra Madre's greatest assets, and will grow more valuable the more population increases.

Mayor's Proposed Secret Council Meet Blocked By S. M. News and Officials

2 Boy 'Glue Sniffers' Apprehended Here

BULLETIN
Three more youngsters were taken into custody by Police Officer Stanley Baney, two of whom, he reports, admitted sniffing glue.

Now Sierra Madre has "glue sniffers" among the teen population. And as Police Officers Douglas Tucker and B. L. Keith remark, "this IS something!"

They surprised two youngsters, each 14, students at Marshall Junior High, walking along the street, sniffing into cloths. Investigating, they discovered the boys were sniffing glue, in this case a toxic substance, calculated to provide the same effect as high-proof whisky.

What the youngsters did not realize is that the contents of glue, so sniffed, may eat away brain tissues and, if continued, can produce insanity.

An Excellent Report

Jackson, After Survey Seeks Business and Parking Expansions

"Sierra Madre has been kept as a private club. It is not fair to the citizens or to new people who want to enter business here."

This was the pertinent statement of former Councilman Don Jackson, businessman, Tuesday night as he submitted to City Council his excellently and thoroughly prepared seven-year plan for proposed expansion of the commercial zone on Sierra Madre Blvd. and Baldwin to Park Ave. on the west and Sierra Place on the east.

Mr. Jackson showed through maps and pictures, plus his own lucid explanation, why the city is not prepared to invite new business and consumer dollars, this increasing the municipality's tax return. He added that much of these consumer's dollars is going out of the city.

ASKING for a complete renovation of the downtown business area and citing the north side of Huntington Dr., in Arcadia, as an excellent example of good commercial planning, he showed that area now totals only 7 per cent of the city's assessed valuation whereas other cities average 20 per cent.

"The fact that we have had a decrease in our commercial area contrasted to an increase in our population is an unhealthy situation," he commented. "We should be able to provide more space for business establishments and expansions, achieve an improved downtown business section, especially in the rear and additional parking spaces — remember 10,881 cars, on the average, pass along Sierra Madre Blvd. daily — that's a lot of potential business.

"LET'S FACE it. We have a sloppy downtown business section. Let's have our downtown business owners dust off their places, both inside and out, let's have room for new businesses — competition is good — and let's have more parking spaces. The city will benefit through increase in its sales tax now totalling around $54,000 a year."

Councilman Severin L. Sorensen commended Mr. Jackson for his presentation and paved the way for Councilman Frank R. Parks to study the situation and also the possibility of obtaining the views of an expert.

BEING JUVENILES, all the police could do, under the law, was to admonish the youngsters. The father of one, however, gave him a spanking good thrashing. Mother of the other's comment was, "Those other boys are leading our son astray."

The situation is so serious in Pasadena that a city ordinance to tighten controls over glue sniffing by teenagers is being considered by the City Board of Directors there. The practice has been steadily increasing in Pasadena.

An investigator for the juvenile bureau, Pasadena Police Department, Jack Parrish, reports, the practice is increasing and frequently starts among junior high school students. It is not done in groups, he says, but individually or in pairs. Parrish adds that glue sniffers sometimes can be detected through loss of appetite, fatigue, headaches and dizziness.

100 Attend Historical Unit Dinner

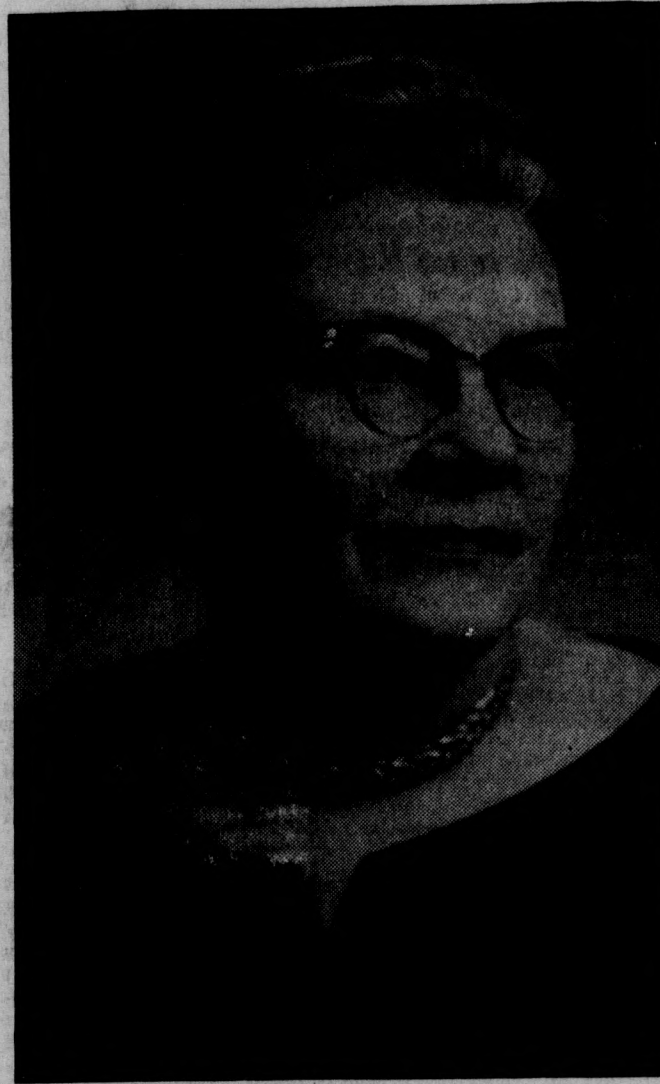

"The Past Is Prologue." These words emphasize the spirit manifest at the annual dinner of the Sierra Madre Historical Society Monday night at the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

As Rev. George W. Lind-say of the Congregational Church indicated in his invocation, the 100 or more persons attending were "noble figures, not only in the city's past history, but also auguries for the lively future of which it is certain."

Postmaster Look to Wed Next Fall

Former sailors from the good ship S.S. Ewing—Harry Lange, Walter Fader, Henry Nelson, Paul Carter, Harold Petz, William Stoddard and J. Carl Brand, and their wives — discovered themselves surreptitiously gathered in the Carl and Jeanne Brand home at 227 W. Orange Grove last Friday night. Postmaster Charles E. Louk also was there — unattended.

True to the traditions of the Kernville, Lake Isabella Navy, Commander Lange took charge and announced that such a gathering of the "Old Salts" was never without a purpose. He then produced a picture, admitting it had been obtained by fair or foul means—or both.

THIS PICTURE was that of Mrs. Nan Piper, blue-eyed Kansas blonde presently residing in Lawrence, Kan., who came fall will arrive in Sierra Madre to claim said unattached Postmaster Louk in marriage. Yep, Charlie is going to get himself hitched.

The party then adjourned to a widely-known restaurant where dinner was served. Afterwards, at the Fader home, toasts were drunk, songs were sung and speeches made in honor of the announcement.

Police, Other City Workers Ask Raise

After having vainly attempted to hold a preliminary secret or star-chamber session in violation of the Brown Act which makes such action a crime and punishable by law, Mayor W. Webster Vannier at Tuesday night's City Council meeting refused brusquely to hear Police Officer Douglas Tucker in the latter's proposed presentation of a request from the City Employees Association for wage raises.

Instead, in an action lasting slightly more than a minute, Mayor Vannier referred the requests covering all city employees to his newly-appointed personnel committee.

The mayor's scheme for a secret session originated in his projected consideration of the Nuetzel apartment (hill-side) proposal. Instead of having the duly elected (by the people) Council make the ultimate decision, he wants it decided at a special election costly to the city at a time when it needs every possible dollar.

The SIERRA MADRE NEWS, learning of the proposed secret meeting, immediately went into action, the attorney general's office at Sacramento was advised; so was the California Newspaper Publishers Association, the district attorney's office and City Atty. Charles R. Martin. The attorney general's office pronounced any such secret meeting a clear-cut violation of the Brown Act; the district attorney's office was ready to move, and City Atty. Martin also pronounced the move illegal and so advised Mayor Vannier.

He also told the mayor that, in his estimation, Council itself can decide the Nuetzel question without any costly special city election.

Councilmen Severin L. Sorensen, James F. Abernethy and Frank R. Parks all announced they would not attend such a secret meeting and Mayor Vannier's "Take a Powder Confab" fell flat.

The City Employees Association request for wage increases is an average of the salaries of city employees, including police, for nine cities in the San Gabriel Valley. President Tucker's statement to Council which was so brusquely thrust aside by the mayor, follows:

THE PROPOSED WAGE

schedules, employ classification and fringe benefits as outlined by Officer Tucker follow in their entirety: "At the April 19 meeting of the Sierra Madre City Employees Association, the members unanimously directed the undersigned to send the enclosed proposed wage schedule to City Council for their consideration.

It was felt that a word of explanation as to how these figures were arrived at might be of help to you in more fully understanding them. A survey of wage schedules for the following nine cities were used: Arcadia, Alhambra, Azusa, El Monte, Monrovia, Monterey Park, Pasadena, San Gabriel and San Marino. After compiling these figures, they were averaged and the average was used as the proposed wage schedule for the various positions.

In looking over the schedule of proposed wages, it is felt that an explanation of certain positions might be helpful to you.

WITH RESPECT to the proposed wage schedule for the Chief of Police, one might ask why the increase is so great and why such a large increase is necessary. First, it should be pointed out that of the nine cities surveyed, only two of them pay their sergeants less than the Sierra Madre Chief of Police, one city paying $27 less and the other $8 less.

Secondly, it should be pointed out that the Chief of Police is in command of the enforcement of all city and state laws, a position which requires much courage and conviction of duty to stand up for right over pressures from all sides.

Thirdly, it should be pointed out that in all of the nine cities listed, the salary schedule of the Chief of Police in all cases was at least $100 a month above that of the Public Works Superintendent and in most cases considerably higher.

IT SHOULD BE pointed out that in our present schedule, the Sierra Madre Public Works Superintendent is receiving $100 a month more than the Chief of Police.

In considering the wage schedule of the fire marshal, it should be noted that in this instance the average of the nine cities was not used. The reason for not using the average is that in many cities, the fire marshal is an officer of the Fire Department and is drawing officer's pay. In those cities where the fire marshal is not an officer, the pay has been the same as that for police sergeant. Taking into consideration these facts, it is proposed to request that Sierra Madre's fire marshal be under the same wage schedule as that of police sergeant.

The Construction Inspector poses another problem inasmuch as of the nine cities surveyed, only three of them have a Construction Inspector and in none of these three cities is the requirement the same as in Sierra Madre. However, in keeping with the basis of the proposed wage schedule, these three cities' wages have been averaged and the average used is the proposed wage schedule. In the three cities which have Construction Inspectors, all three pay the same salary as for that of Building Inspector.

It is felt that the remaining positions and wage schedules are self-explanatory.

IT WAS ALSO suggested that it might be of advantage to the City if you were to check the various classifications in which employees are placed to see if the employee is actually performing those functions. If an employee does not fit his classification, it might be advantageous to create a new classification, with the pay schedule comparable to the average of the above stated nine cities.

It should be explained that in considering this proposed wage schedule that

TRAVEL FAX
By John Baldwin Seales

WE FIND considerable interest this year in the prospect of domestic vacations—trips on the North American Continent. Among the most popular of all such holidays are the fall tours across country to see some of our nation's scenic areas in their most splendid colorations.

These "Fall Foliage" tours have been growing in popularity the past few years to the point where they have become quite a major feature of the travel scene. Certainly, for anyone seeking a new and different way to spend three or four pleasant weeks, such trips have much to offer.

THIS YEAR we are featuring a program offering a choice of three routings, all having late September departures, any one of which would offer a most memorable travel experience. Each features travel by special train, using the most modern type of Pullman equipment, and overall arrangements are most comprehensive in their nature.

THE ROUTINGS and activities are planned to provide a full and interesting tour, with ample opportunity for relaxation and free time. Rates on the trips run from $725 per person, making these tours an excellent travel buy. We have some colorful descriptive folders available at your request.

TWO OTHER domestic trips of outstanding interest are the Riverboat Cruises of the famed "Delta Queen," along the Mississippi, Ohio and Tennessee Rivers, and the Georgian Bay Line cruises on the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Seaway. The 1962 programs for these have recently been published and are also available at our office.

'You Can Take It With You' Title of Pastor Hansen's Sermon on Mother's Day

The humorous play, "You Can't Take It With You," shows how ridiculous it is to think a person can take his worldly possessions with him after he dies, said the Rev. Ray E. Hansen in announcing his sermon, "You Can Take It With You," for 10:10 a.m. Sunday, May 13, at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church.

The practicing Christian learns that he not only gets more happiness in this life," the pastor said, "but he finds a joy of living that he can take with him into his eternal life. This assurance comes only to those who know Jesus Christ, and merely do not know about, or of, Him."

The sermon of the minister, Dr. Wesley P. Ford, will be titled "What Do You See?"

Rabbi Will Talk On 'Compassion'

Rabbi Camillus Angel will conduct the Sabbath Eve services on Friday at 8:30 p.m. at Temple Beth David of the San Gabriel Valley. In his address on the topic, "The Roots of Compassion," he will examine the psychological motivations which moved the children of Israel in Biblical times to regard the disadvantaged members of the community, particularly the helpless stranger, as deserving of special consideration in the application of the laws of justice and mercy.

The belief that every human being, whatever his degree of kinship to himself, is a child of God possessed of dignity and worth, is at the root of Judaism's commitment to the moral principle, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

Mother Love Is Topic for Dr. Barnhart

All mothers will be honored at the Mother's Day service at the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, Sunday at 11 o'clock. "The Healing Balm of Love" is Dr. Ethel Barnhart's sermon topic.

The redeeming, healing power of mother love is a pure channel through which God works to bring forth universal brotherhood.

Special music will include a duet selection by Roger Stevens and a solo "When Children Pray," by Fenner, sung by Margaret Stevens. Child care is provided.

Junior Church convenes at 11 o'clock with graded classes for children from preschool through 9th grade. Youth activity for high school and college groups is held at 7:30 o'clock Sunday nights.

Bethany Notes
Missionary emphasis continues at Bethany Church this coming Sunday as Rev. R. F. (Bob) Stiles speaks to the congregation at the evening service, beginning at 7 p.m.

Mr. Stiles and his wife Marjorie, returned from Manila in December with their two daughters, after 3½ years serving with the Far East Broadcasting Company.

Bob served as general program director while Marjorie assisted with the music and was staff nurse. No date has been set for their return. They are living in Sierra Madre while they do deputation work in Southern California.

Stiles is a graduate of Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena and is an accomplished speaker. He will relate some of his experiences as a missionary in the Philippines but the main emphasis of his message will be on the need for foreign missions in the 20th Century.

FOLLOWING the evening service at 8:30, the film, "A Christian in Communist China," a 21-minute color motion picture filmed in Hong Kong and telling an authentic 20th Century story of Communist terror in Red China will be shown.

It is a story of a Christian leader and how he faces imprisonment, torture and death yet remains true to his calling. The story will inspire and challenge your heart as you view the life of one who indeed became a "tower of strength" to the people he shepherded.

ON WEDNESDAY night, May 16, at 7:30 o'clock a panel of students from Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena will discuss "What Foreign Missions Mean to Me."

A similar panel last year during Bethany's "Month of Missions" proved to be a highlight in the mid-week services during the month, and this feature promises to again stir the thinking of people on this most vital subject.

DR. SCHAPER announces that he will speak this Sunday at both the 8:15 and 11 a.m. services. His subject will be "Christ and Your Home."

HE FURTHER wishes to emphasize the importance of the emphasis on missions which Bethany Church is stressing during May. The public is invited to all services of the church.

Training Confab Set For May 15-17
"Jehovah's Witnesses" of the Temple City area have been notified that their next semi-annual Bible training conference will be held at the Glendale Civic Auditorium, June 15-17, according to James W. Brown, presiding minister of the East unit of the Temple City congregation.

The local group will be among the 19 congregations in the immediate vicinity sharing in the conference program which is sponsored by the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society.

'Adam and Fallen Man' Is Subject
The perfect nature of spiritual creation will be emphasized at all Christian Science services on Sunday.

Among the Bible passages to be read in the lesson-sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" is one from Genesis (1:26,27), "And God said, let us make man in our image, after our likeness."

So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them."

Performance of 'Ramona' at Hemet Has Intense Drama and Fast Action

By Karen Thompson

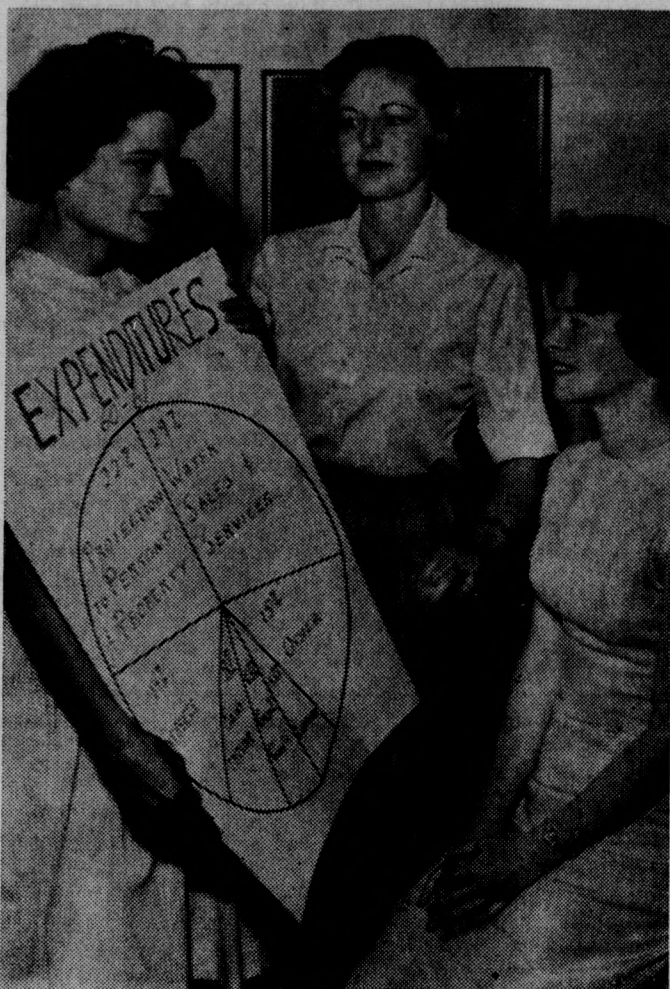

"RAMONA" may be a play of intense drama, fast action and of deep and lasting love, but it is also an uncovering of the tragedy of the Indian people, especially in California.

Alessandro, even though he is the most skillful man in the vicinity, and Romona, even though she is kind and loving and is raised as a Spaniard, are driven from their lands and despised because they are Indians. Alessandro's death, due to the white man's greed and terror, is the culmination of the white man's power and the Indian's plight.

The stories which are behind every performance are as fascinating as the original tale. Only two parts, that of Alessandro and Romona, of the 350 parts are portrayed by people not directly from the Hemet-San Jacinto valley.

THIS SHOWS the skills which are to be found among the valley people for many parts require singing abilities or equestrian skills. With such a large cast of people and with an undetermined number of animals, an outsider would be inclined to think that the excellent timing achieved in "Ramona" was obtained

The PLAZA Shop Talk

By Sewall Clark

HAVE YOU ever been on the verge of doing something quite simple only to be encountered by someone who would make it complicated? Maybe it's merely an impulse to plant dichondra, then suddenly an expert appears from out of nowhere and says: "Nope! Better use ivy."

Could be an oriental rug sent by someone in your family, rare in fabric and rich with memories. Nope! Gotta have wall-to-wall carpeting.

YOU may have traveled the world and pondered much, but you might as well face it: there will always be people with less experience than yours to tell you how to eat, live — and be "un-merry."

Reminds me of the wonderful woman at the Plaza Shop last week who commented that some people have a way of making life so "unsimple." Seems there were all kinds of people wanting her to dress according to THEIR tastes, but she knew what SHE wanted so she bought it. No fuss.

ANOTHER woman, who had been told she was "too old to wear color," found a simple solution by deciding the heck with it. She bought a gay and cheerful dress in spite of thinking she might be scolded at home; came back a week later to say how everyone loved her for it.

TRUDIE, of course, was delighted. She believes in a bit of independent thinking. She's proud that a man named Clark was among those to sign the Declaration of Independence (so am I) and we are both agreed that a person with an inherent sense of quality should never depend too much upon the opinion of others.

EXCEPT for one thing. About the parkway in front of the Plaza Shop — do you really think dichondra would never make it?

By the time you read this the Republican Women's Chorus will have made their debut at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium on Wednesday; sharing the program with Ronald Reagan (I eavesdropped on a rehearsal, and their lovely voices are still ringing in my ears).

The always capable and talented Evelyn Cannon directs the chorus whose members are Norma Nurches, Shirley Heinbrich, Dorothy Bruce, Dolores Zinsmeyer, Rosa Cason, Paylis Miller, Marilyn Pursley, Marge Rowley, Jean Baker, Jean Stivers, Roda Smith, Jan Brittell, Cass Woodworth, Alice Callow, Shirley Anderson and Jean Veblen. "A Couple of Swells" from the Field parents show, namely Norma Nurches and Cass Woodworth are bound to bring down the house with their special rendition of "Hey, Look Us Over." I'll wager even Mr. Khrushchev couldn't sit on his hands after hearing Norma and Cass.

THE MOST INTERESTING garden event of the year will take place next Sunday afternoon at the Arboretum to which the public will be excluded. I don't know what Emily Post would have said—but I'd say it's unfair to garden-loving Mothers on THEIR DAY!

Seems the Arboretum will be closed to the public after 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon so that local garden club members may show it off to some 600 National Gardeners who are conventioning in Los Angeles this week.

Hastings Ranch and Las Jardineras Garden Clubs have joined forces in decorating the historic Coach Barn. Members will be costumed in the period of coach-riding in the Tally Ho

SPEAKING OF COMMITTEES: Four members of the Hasty Hens — Nita Bacon, Nita David, Roda Smith, Cee Sweet, plus four members of the Ranch Wrens — Sarajane Caldecott, Alice Callow, Beryl Lollard and Eileen Ray are planning a smashing Hen-Wren Spring Party for Saturday night. Ladies from these two Lower Ranch clubs, (with husbands in tow), will gather for cocktails at Margaret and Art Mann's home on Rim Road, to be followed by dinner and dancing at Eatons.

BEFORE LEAVING the club circuit — here are the names of the new officers elected by Las Companeras during their luncheon meeting at the El Dorado last week. President, Mrs. Guy Knudson; first and second vice presidents, Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mrs. Malcolm Murison; secretary, Mrs. William J. Murphy; treasurer, Mrs. Russell Delahooke.

MARTY AND WARREN NEWTON have a fun weekend ahead. The men in Mr. Newton's company, Republic Supply, will play in a golf tournament in San Diego. There won't be any golf widows this weekend, however. They are going along, meeting in San Clemente for breakfast, to be followed by shopping and swimming in San Diego. On their return trip they'll dine at the Hurley Bell. That's the kind of golf tournament I like!

AS USUAL, there was more chatter than bridge when some of our gals gathered at Katherine Schlinger's home on Shadow Grove Tuesday evening. But scoring for fun were Mildred Mico, Thea Chambers, Mary Dischea, Louise Major, Virginia Martin, Marcia Perryman and Jean DuPuy.

A Mother's a Mother all of her life. It really doesn't matter if you are a fresh young thing almost on the brink of life yourself, or if you are worn with time and years. Till the day you die the child you've born is your son or daughter — your little boy or girl.

All the anxiety, love, and concern is not turned off when your child reaches legal age and leaves the hearth. Child of your flesh be he born to you or adopted, he's your joy, your fulfillment, your purpose in life, your motivating force, the privilege for which we live.

Homage on a special day isn't really necessary to a Mother; it is just her child's way of showing that in spite of years and time and duties, he too and she too remembers always their MOTHER.

IT REALLY doesn't take a lot for me to get a wandering foot and head for the suitcases. With the hillites taking off in every direction on extended vacations my feet are itching something fierce.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE (LEN) MORRISON of Sierra Madre Villa left on the Lurline last Friday afternoon after a rousing farewell from a large group of well-wishers in their stateroom. They plan to be gone around three weeks.

After several days in Honolulu they will Island hop and see the rest of the area.

They'll jet home via San Francisco. Matter of fact, they barely had time to prepare for the trip. Mrs. M. had only returned a week or two before from a vacation trip to Mexico to see her family.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY PECK of Sierra Madre Villa got away from it all by spending a few days at the Riviera Hotel in Palm Springs.

ALSO ISLAND BOUND are Mr. and Mrs. Alkman Armstrong of Fairpoint Ave. They enplaned last Saturday morning for two weeks in and around the Hawaiian Islands.

MRS. E. J. FOSTINIS of Edgelynn Lane recently entertained at a get acquainted luncheon for all of her neighbors. Among those invited were Mrs. Henry Asher, Mrs. William Baugh, Mrs. Gilbert Olsen, Mrs. Edward DiBias, Mrs. George LeConte, Mrs. F. A. Schmieg, Mrs. Alfred Allen, Mrs. Edna Osborn, Mrs. David Owen and her baby, John; Mrs. Tom Klingensmith, and her little daughter Leslie; Mrs. Sallie Love Bickle, Mrs. Chesley Osborn and Mrs. Holling C. Holling.

I asked if they played cards and Mrs. Fostinis said they were much too busy visiting and enjoying the babies.

MR. AND MRS. HOWARD MORGRIDGE of Meyerloo Lane had a group in last Friday evening for dinner and a recap of their last summer's vacation at Crystal Cove. They showed the movies they had taken when they were all there together.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Wetmore, Mrs. Kay Ficken, Mr. and Mrs. John Mahlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Emory, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick (Buss) Parkhill, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Steen, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Deeder, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gould.

I can guarantee they were all ready to return the following day after seeing the movies.

MRS. EDWARD HALPERIN of Old House Rd. and incoming president of the Villa Guild of the Rosemary Cottage, gave a surprise luncheon last Monday to honor Mrs. F. R. (Sara) Anderson for the fine work she had done in her year and a-half as first president of the Guild.

The guests included last year's board members. They all presented Mrs. Anderson with a lovely purse as a token of the entire Guild's appreciation.

Invited guests were Mrs. Norman White, Mrs. E. Marshall Harris, Mrs. Joseph Mangan, Mrs. Lincoln Wilson, Mrs. Ira Lackey Mrs. C. Tom Crawford, Mrs. Edwin Fyle, Mrs. Joseph Phelps, and myself.

A FAMILY TYPE party was the order of the evening the other night at the home of the Harold Berge of Vossburg. The Berge and their three children and the Philip Saurenmans with two of their children cosponsored a patio dinner for their new neighbors, Dr. and Mrs. Clete Dorsey and their two children, Steve and Ann. The party was held in the Berge's patio.

Civic Club Given Seven Awards For Outstanding Projects During Past Year

Seven awards for outstanding club projects from April, 1961, to April, 1962, were given to the Sierra Madre Civic Club by the Verdugo District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, at its 6th annual convention, held on April 26 and 27, at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena.

Work Party to be Staged by Campfires

Sierra-Hastings District of Campfire Girls will hold their annual Wo-Pa-Pa (Work - Party - Parents) at Camp Wasegagan the weekend of May 19 and 20.

Camp Wasegagan, the Campfire resident camp, is in the San Bernardino Mountains on the upper Santa Ana River.

It is complete with dining hall, lodge building, sleeping shelters, swimming pool, separate water system and modern toilet facilities.

In the interest of economy only a minimum of professional assistance in maintaining the camp and in preparing it for the summer is hired. Therefore, the voluntary help of parents in the form of these district work parties over a series of weekends during the spring put the camp in shape.

Among those making early reservations are Mr. and Mrs. Al Korgiebel, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hurlig, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Dunn. Any one wishing further information or wanting to make reservations by May 11 may call Mr. Beck at ELgin 5-3119.

FURTHER NEWS of interest comes from Campfire Leader Gay Bettencourt who says her group has just completed two requirements for Fire Maker Rank. One was a tea held recently for outstanding women in the community at the home of Mrs. Terry Chambers. Those honored were Mrs. Charles Young, Community Chest leader; Mrs. Harry Hinshaw, children's librarian; Mrs. Lester Anthony, chairman of Recreation Commission, and Miss Betty Newton, principal of Sierra Mesa School.

The second requirement was performing a ceremonial for a group of fly-up Blue Birds.

The Oda Kan-Ya group from the 6th grade at Sierra Mesa School, led by Mrs. Bettencourt, comprises the following girls: Julia Ballinger, Janet Bettencourt, Melissa Sielen and Karen Tillquist.

Mabel I. Tonkin Dies From Fall

Injuries suffered in a fall in Monrovia in February caused the passing away on May 8 of Mabel Irene Tonkin, 87, of 178 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre. A retired telephone operator, she had been a Sierra Madrean for six years, coming here from Chicago.

Member of the Woman's Club and formerly a widely-known bridge player in Chicago, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Kathryn Scheuer of Sierra Madre, and three nephews, Charles Gazdola of Sierra Madre; Herbert Murphy of Chicago, and Thomas Herbert of Denver.

Rosary was to be recited at 7:30 p.m. Thursday (today) in St. Rita's Church, with Mass at 9 a.m. Friday, with Rev. Thomas J. O'Malley officiating.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF PROPOSED VARIANCE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the provisions of the Code of the City of Sierra Madre, Section 9229, that the Planning Commission of the City of Sierra Madre has fixed Thursday, May 24, 1962, at the hour of 7:00 o'clock P.M. in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, 55 West Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, California, as the time and place for holding a public hearing on a proposed variance from Code Sec. 9443 (1-B), to construct a building within five feet of an existing structure for property described as the west one-half of Lot 6, except the northerly 175 feet of Lot 6 of Block 4 Addition of Sierra Madre, further described as 91-93 East Laurel Avenue.

The proposed variance is based upon the grounds that there are special circumstances attached to said property which generally do not apply to other properties in the same district and vicinity; that the granting of a variance as aforesaid will not result in a material damage or prejudice to the public welfare or be injurious to persons in the vicinity thereof; in that the proposed variance, if granted, would be subject to such conditions as the Planning Commission may deem necessary to assure that the spirit and purpose of said City Zoning Code will be observed, public welfare and safety secured, and substantial justice done to all parties.

Dated: May 9, 1962
BY ORDER OF THE PLANNING COMMISSION
Beatrice I. Thompson,
Secretary
Published May 10, 1962.

The "Sweepstakes" award was received for The Club History, compiled by Mrs. J. Bryce Tyler, club historian, and illustrated by Danny Tyler.

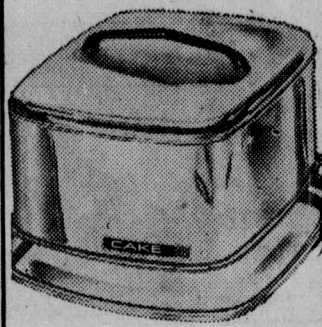

First place awards were received for the Children and Youth, Sierra Madre Library, Club History, and Health Conservation and Gerontology projects.

Delegates from the Civic Club to the convention were Mrs. G. Norman Kennedy, Mrs. Frank Ross, and Mrs. Richard G. Keppler. Others attending were Mrs. Stewart M. Fried and Mrs. Edward N. Chapman.

SECOND PLACES awards were received for the club's and Welfare projects of the Civic Club.

The first knives in 2000 years with a cutting edge that's NOT STEEL!

Robeson Flame Edge

with WAVY FLUTED Edges

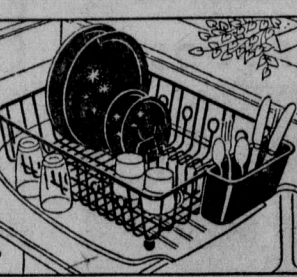

You never sliced it so good! Ripe tomatoes, hot bread, overdone roasts are no problem to slice as thin as you want with a Robeson Flame Edge Knife. That's because: One side of the cutting edge is tungsten carbide, the hardest metal known, detonated onto steel at 10 times the speed of sound, at a temperature of 6000 degrees. As the edge of steel wears away, more and more of the Flame Edge is exposed—more and more of the tungsten carbide's microscopic teeth are bared to keep the knife razor sharp.

Handles are brown ShurWood with contoured grip, impervious to heat and acids. Knives individually packaged.

Prof. Cassady To Lecture on Picasso

Pablo Picasso, acclaimed as one of the great artists of our time, will be the topic of Richard Cassady's lecture at 8 o'clock tonight at the Arcadia Public Library.

The eighth and final lecture in the series presented by the Creative Arts Group and their supporting organization, The Sponsors, the lecture will climax a discussion of art which has featured the work and ideas of the French Impressionists, Cezanne, Van Gogh, Toulouse Lautrec, the "Wild Beasts," The Expressionists, Marc Chagall and Paul Klee.

Mr. Cassady's lectures have been enthusiastically received not only because of the wide range of subject material, but also because of his interesting manner of presentation. Colored slides and musical recordings are used to enhance the lectures, and the historical, social and economic conditions and their influence on the art of the period are also reviewed.

MR. CASSADY, who is assistant professor of art at Los Angeles State College, has linked his subjects together in chronological order, although each lecture has been an entity in itself. It is not necessary to have attended the entire series to derive pleasure and stimulation from the final "Picasso."

Because of the widespread interest in this contemporary artist and his versatile material, a special admission fee of 50 cents is offered to all students of the area, payable at the door, as is the regular price of $1. More information about the lecture may be obtained by calling Mrs. Paul Campion at EL 5-9729.

New Books at Library

GALICO, PAUL—"Scutty." The meanest, most malevolent, misanthropic ape at the Rock of Gibraltar during World War II reduces the ape population to one—himself—to the dismay of the Foreign Office—a logical but preposterous story of how the British Empire was saved.

MERCER, CHARLES—"The Reckoning." Probes into the murky tortured world of the alcoholic.

OGVILLE, ELIZABETH—"Call Home the Heart." Set in a sleepy wooded background here is a dramatic story of heartbreak, mystery and intrigue.

SLAUGHTER, FRANK—"Tomorrow's Miracle." The story of a physician, missionary, one-time faith healer in the Florida scrublands.

SMITH, H. ALLEN—"To Hell in a Handbasket." Humorous reminiscences of the 20's and 30's.

Non-Fiction
FRANK, PAT.—"How to Survive the H-Bomb and Why."

GANNON, ROBERT I.—"The Cardinal Spellman Story."

GELB, ARTHUR AND BARBARA O'NEILL—"Oxford Companion to the Theater."

ROSS, ISHBEI—"Grace Coolidge and Her Era."

TURNBULL, ANDREW—"Scott Fitzgerald."

Ramona

only through numerous rehearsals.

Surprisingly enough, the entire cast only goes through one rehearsal together.

Another untold story reveals the courage of the players and the desire to finish the play without interruptions. The stuntman who takes the fatal leap as Alessandro is supposed to land on a mattress in a small hidden ravine and remain there until the show is over, usually another 15 minutes.

DURING ONE performance, the stuntman jumped down as scheduled and found a rattlesnake, an unscheduled visitor, resting on the mattress. The stuntman, true to his profession, stayed with the rattlesnake for the remaining 15 minutes, probably the longest 15 minutes of his life.

As a spectator to "Ramona" in the Ramona Bowl in Hemet during the early weekends of spring, you may not be aware of all the back stage or rock-hidden dramas but you will be aware of a fast-moving love story which has numerous moral undertones.

Latin Exams
Trophy Aim
at Alverno

With two more silver medals to earn for a trophy, 128 Alverno students will participate in the 31st annual Latin examination sponsored by the Association for the Promotion of the Study of Latin on April 10.

APSL examinations are extensive in scope, with approximately 40,000 Latin students in 50 states and 17 other regions and countries participating in 1961.

Dr. Albert E. Worsley, director of the APSL, sponsors this testing program, which includes Latin translation, vocabulary, and grammatical syntax.

THE 45-MINUTE tests are administered in the spring of each year and are corrected personally by Dr. Worsley and his staff. Results are then sent to the Latin teachers along with the national grade median which enables teachers to evaluate their students' ability, work and progress with regard to the rest of the nation. This establishes scholastic as well as competitive features.

Students may merit four types of Achievement Certificates of Merit: Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, Maxima Cum Laude and Summa Cum Laude. With the Summa Cum Laude, the student also is awarded a medal-pin. When three medal-pins have been earned, the school receives a trophy.

Council Meeting
the above stated formula was used in all cases except where stated and that in no instance were personalities used as a basis for increasing or decreasing the proposed wage.

It is further requested that the City Council in considering this wage schedule do so with an open mind as to the position and job requirements and regardless whether or not the person presently employed in that position is capable or not capable of doing the job.

It should be stated further that once a fair wage schedule with respect to this area is attained, that Council can then require employment of capable employees, but until that time the City cannot expect to get what they pay for in all cases. The above statement should not be construed into thinking that present employees are not capable of their jobs but should be considered as a basis in determining future employees and the promotion of present employees.

It should be pointed out that just because an employee will work for a small wage does not mean that he or she is inferior, but in many cases it does mean that the fact a person has had experience in city employment acts as a step to better employment in other cities paying better wages.

In all fairness to the taxpayer, it should be realized that citizens of Sierra Madre, by paying city employees lower wages, are in effect paying for the other cities' employee training. An average wage for the area is a fair wage and this coupled with proper fringe benefits would assure the taxpayer of capable employees and employees who intend to stay with the City rather than use the City as a school for better employment.

ALSO AT the April 19 Employees Association meeting it was requested that the City Council consider additional vacation for employees who have been with the City for several years. It was suggested that the addition of five working days vacation be given to all employees who have worked for the City five years or more.

We would like to call Council attention to the fact that this proposed wage schedule was based on the average wage of the above stated nine cities as per their 1961-1962 schedules. It should also be pointed out that in requesting the proposed wage schedule we have not asked for a certain percentage but rather merely asking for the average wage of surrounding cities. It should be noted that many of these cities used in our survey are at the present time asking for wage increases from a minimum of 4 per cent to a maximum of 15 per cent.

We appreciate the Council's consideration given in past requests and are sure that the above stated proposals will meet with the same fair thinking."

COUNCIL, considering proposed Sewer District 75 extending north from W. Grand View and west from Baldwin to Michillinda, eliminated four Auburn Lake properties and passed enabling legislation leading to receipt of bids. The city's figure is $349,000, the project involving 22,869 feet of eight-inch sewer pipe for its main arteries, plus other for laterals. Ninety-six minutes were involved in the public hearing, many citizens giving their views.

Committees appointed by the mayor are:

Personnel — Sorensen, Abernethy.
Administration — Van-nier, Abernethy (Abernethy is vice mayor).
Capital Improvements — Rule and Parks.
Planning Commission — Abernethy.
Recreation Commission — Parks.
Library Board — Sorensen.
Business District Problems — Parks.
Senior Citizens — Rule, Abernethy.
Water Problems — Rule.

Lorenzini's Have Guest From Ireland

Mr. and Mrs. John Lorenzini of 611 E. Grand View celebrated Easter at their home with members of their family and a guest of honor. Mrs. Ellen Johnston of Belfast, Ireland, who arrived last Saturday by jet, flew 7,000 miles to join her son-in-law, whom she had never seen, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lorenzini, for the occasion.

The guest of honor was thrilled at the most perfect day, making the outdoor buffet dinner a delightful treat for Mrs. Johnston.

"ON FRIDAY, when I left Belfast, said Mrs. Johnston, "it was raining and cold. I'm just now beginning to thaw out."

Mrs. Johnston is planning to stay a few months with her daughter and son-in-law before returning to Ireland.

Also celebrating the day with their parents were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lorenzini and their three children; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lorenzini and their two children, and John Lorenzini.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lorenzini's two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Williamson and Mrs. Mary Erickson, both of Pennsylvania, were unable to attend the family gathering.

Army Recruiting Sign Is Stolen

Evidently someone in this area has a dislike for Uncle Sam's Army. They stole the U.S. Army Recruiting Sign in front of Von's Shopping Bag Market in Hastings Ranch.

Valued at $30, it was metal and bore the inscription, "I Want You For the U.S. Army."

Toyon Road Folk Protest

Toyon Road residents are up in arms over unsightly telephone poles placed in front of houses along the street on Toyon Rd. and are immediately filing protests with the Edison Co., the subdivider, the Prescott Company, and City of Sierra Madre.

"The residents find absolutely no reason why existing poles on Grand View Lane cannot be used," said John A. Sielen, their leader. "Again we have a strong case of poor planning."

"No objection would be made if there were no existing poles. However, there are utility poles available, and it seems ridiculous to add another six poles in front of the houses with wiring extending to the rear for hookup."

On the west side of Toyon Rd., existing poles to the rear of the houses will be used.

"They that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God, And he shall be as the light of the morning . . . ; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain." — Last Words of King David, Old Testament.

"The flames kindled on the 4th of July 1776, have spread over too much of the globe to be extinguished by the feeble engines of despotism, on the contrary, they will consume these engines and all who work them."—Jefferson's "Testament of Freedom."

Our Good Land -- FIRST!

Despite its supposedly humanitarian aspect, this newspaper believes that the United Nations is, as Lord Beaverbrook pronounced it, "a Fifth Column aimed at the heart of America and in favor of Communist Russia."

In fact, we believe that it has become a debating society, the expense of which is borne largely by the United States, and which in much of its totality, including the newly-created and admitted nations, professes adherence to our beliefs and aims, yet when the chips are down votes with Communist Russia.

In such a situation and it has prevailed now for several years — Korea was an example where Communist Russia was duty bound to send troops to assist the United Nations forces in South Korea (mostly American — our casualties were 140,000 young Americans) — Moscow maintained its role as enemy of the United States and sent help instead to the Red Chinese and North Korean forces.

OUR PRIMARY CONCERN is with America and make no mistake about it we hold our America First.

We believe earnestly that if the United States withdraws from the United Nations, a four-power treaty — America, England, West Germany and France can, aside from minor "brush wars," maintain peace in the world.

We believe that if we Americans devote our time and money in shining up and making America the Republic it should be with every possible respect for the rights of the individual, sans Welfare Statism or the Creeping Socialism which have been boring into its entrails these past few years due to the Pinkish Professional ring operating in Washington and elsewhere, that we will be emulated by the rest of the world, Russia and her satellite states excepted.

WE BELIEVE that "Fortress America" can be a richly rewarded and effective deterrent to war with Soviet Russia or even Red China as bent on conflict as the latter appears, but unable to start it because of its starving millions.

We believe that, with American ingenuity, know-how and enterprise that this nation can be made so strong that the Communist world will want peace.

Shakespeare wrote that "the quality of mercy is not strained." The Bard of Avon did not, however live in these times precarious for America, for the quality of mercy is strained so far as America is concerned. Our billions have gone to help benighted nations and people to regain their industry and self-respect.

We believe that our national pocketbook is strained to the nth degree and that it is time we kept these billions at home — we need them now to reduce an exorbitantly heavy tax levy imposed on us by our growing and so far unchecked Welfare State.

WE BELIEVE that in this juncture of American history, the most serious in our annals, that there should be no Rightists, no Leftists, no Liberals, no Moderates — only Americans First, Last and All of the Time.

We believe that those Ultra-Leftists, and we have them, should pick up their bags and baggage, and go to Atheistic Russia or Red China to live — they'd learn a lot about what true freedom really means.

These tenets constitute our America-First Doctrine.

We know they are patriotic and hope that they are sound. In our book OUR GOOD LAND COMES FIRST — the rest of the world second. If we rank first, the rest of the world will follow.

Bus Schedules Needed

Max Gillis who heads the Metropolitan Bus Lines quite often forgets that Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch, Sierra Madre Villa, the Oaks-Highland and Rosemead-Foothill areas are served by his company — if you called it "served." Just a reminder to Max — we believe there is a state law or regulation requiring posting of bus schedules at all regular stops.

Such a stop is in Kersting Square, once site of the Pacific Electric depot in Sierra Madre. The SIERRA MADRE NEWS suggests that Metropolitan post such a schedule at this location — pronto. It is badly needed.

For This Good Cause

With Memorial Day approaching, this is a time of year when veterans and what they have meant to our Land of Freedom is of especial moment.

This is particularly true of veterans in hospitals who merit our attention to their needs, especially for clothing.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, Harry Embree Post No. 3208, sends out a call for shirts for needy hospitalized veterans. They will mend and launder them if necessary.

There also is a need for slacks, jackets and suits, and we can imagine no better way in which people can bestow their largesse in this respect.

AUXILIARY members who make monthly trips to the San Fernando, Long Beach and Sawtelle Military Hospitals report that donations may be left at Maj. Dick Kings Jewelry Store, 24 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

We urge a lot of people to make a lot of donations for this good cause.

'Old Man of the Mountain' Returns

The Hermit Airs Gubernatorial Views

By Den Murray
(EDITOR'S NOTE: Opinions of the Hermit are his own, and not necessarily shared by this newspaper.)

We had heard that almost alone of nature's children residing in the mountains back of Sierra Madre the Hermit had not been put to flight by last fall's big fire. We found this to be true. The old man was irrigating his vegetable garden with runoff water from his mountain spring when we came upon him. He greeted us as if it had been yesterday. We had seen him last instead of well over a year. "No, the fire didn't discommode me much," he reported. "Living up here you expect it periodically and stay ready. But a lot of my friends, chiefly the feathered ones and non-burrowing fur-bearers like the deer, bear and raccoon, were chased for a spell. They're mostly back now," he added with a satisfied chomp and resultant tilt of his spiky grey beard.

WE MARVELLED at the status-quo look of things in the vicinity of his cave entrance and adjacent hut. "Water," he explained. "The stuff that originally bloomed California and which will leave it shriveled and dying whenever an adequate supply fails." But we hadn't toiled all the way up here to discuss Southern California's looming water problem, and the shrewd old man sensed it. "With the June 5 primary approaching I've been ex-future in California politics," he revealed resignedly. "You aim to get me out on a limb in this gubernatorial scramble. Well, like with other such plaguey things as the fire and mud and tumbling boulders — I'm ready for you. Shoot!"

"The Republican nominee who will face Brown in November?"

"Nixon, of course. Not enough people know the quality of this man. Shell. And not enough time left before June 5 to educate them."

"YOU'LL BE voting?" "I haven't failed my country in this regard since I cast my first vote for Charles Evans Hughes in 1916," snapped the oldest. "Who for this time?"

"It's none of your business — but Joe Shell. And to save your breath, I'll be voting for Dick Nixon in the finals as against this fellow Brown." "Won't that be wasting your primary vote? Voting for Shell when you feel he can't be nominated?"

"No! Like a lot of other Californians who see Brown's inevitable tax raises rapidly putting California in the same stagnant, bankrupted, industry-chasing condition that Mennen 'Shaving Cream' Williams put Michigan — I want to sound a protest. A vote for Shell does it, a warning to the liberal-handed spendthrifts like Brown, and a shout of encouragement to sane-thinking, solid-acting, fearlessly honest candidates like Joe Shell that they have a self. There is a wrong line of succession, in my opinion, from an honest patriot and love for one's country which always also has the welfare of mankind and humanity in view, to a narrow nationalism which cannot see beyond its own borders, right or wrong. In the case of your last three paragraphs, one must soon speak of an "Americanism," isolated and withdrawn from participation in the problems of the world. I like to still believe that we all are striving for peace on earth—then the United Nations are our best hope for some day achieving it. When you quote Mr. Hoover's statement, "Unless the U.N. is completely reorganized without the Communist Nations in it, we should get out of it," you must realize that then today the remnant would again be an entangling alliance against which Washington warned us. The Russians would then be correct in mistrusting our intentions and claim that we are using the United Nations only for our own purposes. They would have a right to walk out if they were not thrown out before.

IF THE UNITED NATIONS is to mean anything in the world today, it must include all nations and sides. If it should become an instrument for world-peace—and there is no other—then it should remain as objective and neutral in its arguments as it possibly can and give birth to a world-law to which every nation can and must adhere. Only then are we working for humanity, the rights of men and those of nations. Your statement that the United Nations is "a day of the betrayal of America, not for the Freedom of Men. Let's give it back to the Russians and their satellites," I think, is completely unfounded.

Today, the United Nations are still leaning towards the Western Nations to the chagrin of the Communists who would love to dominate it, but in any case, they should only consider right and wrong and their decisions and decisions must be "ethical" in the moral sense of the word. We could help to make them so, but not with suggestions such as you make. The death of the United Nations would kill the last hope of mankind to found a "Family of all Nations" working together for peace.

Enclosed is my check for $3 for another year of your SIERRA MADRE NEWS.

We are enjoying the News here in the Hawaiian Islands, more than we did even in Sierra Madre. Our only regret is that it takes so long to get it for each issue is almost a month old before it reaches us.

Art joins me in sending regards to Mrs. Herwig and you.

Aloha,
DOT AND ART DRAEGER

EDITOR'S NOTE — The SIERRA MADRE NEWS has no hesitancy in printing Letters to the Editor expressing views divergent to its own. The following is such an example. However, in the interests of length and to avoid views not akin to the main subject, we have edited Mr. Ellerbrock's copy. His views regarding the United Nations remain unchanged and are presented in their entirety. So far as our friendship with Mr. Ellerbrock is concerned, it remains unchanged in its cordiality and our columns always are opened to him.

Dear Editor: We have been friends for many years now; although we have not seen eye to eye on every issue, we did agree on many of them and I have gladly defended you and your newspaper as doing a good service to the community. I sincerely hope that we will remain friends, Mr. Herwig, in spite of the fact that your editorial of April 19 has aroused me to take a stand and answer the heading of it, "Do you wish to see the end of America?" with "then follow your editorial's advice."

Let me say at the outset that I voted for Nixon in the last election, that I signed the petition to outlaw the Communist Party in California (although I still have doubts that any prohibition can successfully eliminate an evil or a wrong and have scruples that I probably underrated the mentality of my fellow citizens in believing that they may fall for the dictatorial superiority of the State over the free individual) and I am an idealist "who tries to stay sober," as my friend Dr. Schweitzer once said about himself.

BUT TO the editorial it peace. Strengthening the United Nations and creating a world law is a long-term and difficult task. But I won't help to say, "To hell with it!" —LEE ELLERBROCK

Ah, Eggheads!

Ever since Prof. Arthur Schlesinger Jr. (President Kennedy's advisor) made his speech advocating that the President sack the Constitution and run this country for the best interests of the people, why practically every egghead in college has headed for the White House to try and get on the Kennedy payroll. I reckon one of the jobs of the President is to figure out the difference between stupidity and plain ole ignorance.

Perils From Weed Fires Is Stressed

Because of the heavy rains in January, February and early March, weeds are about twice as tall this year, creating a problem twice as serious and making necessary all possible steps to curb attendant fire and disease dangers, according to Fire Marshal Bert Embree.

these weed abatement recommendations:

1-If the property has been disced by tractor, additional hand work should be done about the edges—along fences, under trees, in corners and other places which the tractor could not reach.

2-When weeds are chopped or cut, they should be removed from the property and not left piled or laying around the ground where fire could start.

3-It is permissible to keep weed areas mowed if kept short so seeds will not scatter to neighboring properties, causing a nuisance.

4-Along the Foothill areas, all weeds and dead vegetation should be cut away to form a "firebreak" between the brush and buildings, along with cutting dead tree limbs from around buildings, particularly in keeping all vegetation at least ten feet from any chimney outlet.

IN THIS connection, Marshal Embree stressed that several recent fires have shown that vegetation is now dry enough to burn readily, so that the problem of brush fires and their possibility of leading to more serious blazes is once again with us.

The marshal also warns about smoking in brush areas and barbecue fires.

Brown, Clark Get Badges For Service

Sitting down to dinner at the Congregational Church, members of the Sierra Madre Fire Department, their wives and guests, witnessed badges for 20 years of service bestowed on Chief

Charles E. Brown, Capt. Robert H. Clark and Fireman Mercer Duff.

Presentation was made by Vice Mayor James F. Abernethy, the dinner itself being result of a series of drills held last year between two Fire Department crews.

Following the dinner, the firemen and their guests enjoyed movies taken over the years by a fireman and depicting various activities of the department.
